SECTION- A (READING)

(10Marks)

Q.1 A. Read the passage given below and choose the correct answer from the options: (5)

The drink of Asia for hundreds of years, tea is believed to have been brought to Europe by the Dutch. Today, from the remotest corners of Ladakh to Buckingham palace, tea is synonymous with cheer.

It is rightly said that there will be no agreement on a perfect cup of tea. Though for tea drinkers the brew is addictive, the preferred method of preparation and taste differs from person to person and region to region.

Today many varieties of tea and tea brands are available in the market. An innovation is the tea-bag that is easy, quick and less messy than traditional ways of brewing tea. Green tea is popular in China and the Far East. In Japan, the tea ceremony is a traditional way of greeting guests and is a social occasion. Unlike the tea we are familiar with, green tea is not drunk with sugar or milk. It is an olive-coloured liquid served in porcelain cups. In Morocco, green tea is infused with freshly mint.

Some scientists believe tea prevents tooth decay because it is a rich source of fluoride. Tea is also a folk remedy for stomach upsets, flu and diarrhoea.

B. Read the given passage and choose the correct answer from the given options- (5)

Summer is upon us and the mango has made its appearance. Even as pickles, papads, preserves, pulp and powder get prepared for the mango- less days ahead, we only need to sink our teeth into sour raw mango or the ripe sweet one for a taste of heaven on earth. So grab a fruit and let us unravel the marvellous mango mystery.

Legend has it that the mango was not only the king of fruits but a fruit of kings. Once upon a time, personal orchards were heavily guarded symbols of status with exclusive varieties of their fruit cultivated especially for royalty and nobles though favoured folks were gifted baskets of the much-sought-after mangoes.

Mangoes trace their origin to India and Burma where they have been grown for over 5000 years. Buddhist monks transplanted it to Malaysia and other parts of South-east Asia, the Portuguese took it to Brazil and the West Indies, the Persians to the Gulf and Africa. It was only in the 1830s that mangoes first appeared in the United States.

a) When did mangoes appear in the United States?

- i) before 200 years
- ii) before 1000 years
- iii) before 500 years
- iv) before 5000 years

b) In which country mangoes trace their origin?

- i) Malaysia
- ii) Brazil

- iii) India
